Mr. Smith ate two pieces of the cake, and, discovering the bitter taste, suspected it contained poison. Shortly after he was necessary and suspected in turning classmen out of their hammecks at night, making them cat soap, stand on their heads, turn sum-mersaults sing sones etc. and in every quite ill from the effects, and was only re stored after some hours by a physician

The attention of the committee was from the first turned toward the Indiana election, not only of their own accord, but at the suggestion of many of the prominent Republican politicians. Mr. D. B. Henderson, of lowa, who succeeded Dorsey as secretary of the committee, however, had a different view, He writes from Dubuque as follows:

Lieut. Josiah Chance, of the Seventeenth Regiment Infantry, United States army, at the close of the late war, having served entirely through it, was commissioned in the regular service. Eleven years ago he was stationed at Bismarck, and here he has been ever since. Under his superin-tendence Camp Hancock was built, and the present Fort Lincoln. He shook hands with the gallant Custer when he left to march to death, and one of the first tears to fall over his sad fate fell from Lieut Chance. At present he is 30,000 dollars in the July drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, at a cost of 2 dol-

We purchased a 50-Saw Brown Gin, Feeder and Condensor in the fall of 1880, and have now finished the second season with it. The Gin has given us good satisfaction, makes a fine staple, and our customers are well pleased with it. We consider the Feeder and Condenser indispensable attachments, and would not be without them for near their cost.
